

A retired veteran and his wife had fallen behind on property taxes on the home they owned. They were referred to credit counseling to work on a household budget. Additionally the counselor helped them select a local financial institution to obtain a loan and get current on taxes. This relieved a financial burden and kept them living in their home.

Consumer Credit Counseling
- Building an Educated Community
Supported in part by the United Way.
Give generously.

LIVE UNITED.

Provided by Local Area United Way, Inc.